The American Holistic Nurses Credentialing Corporation (AHNCC) is responsible for the Certification Processes of Nurses who base their practice in the precepts of Holistic Nursing.

Here are the top 5 reasons holistic nurses and nurse coaches should pursue certification.

1. Better Patient Care
   - Demonstrates a commitment to providing the best possible care for your clients.

2. Greater Awareness
   - Facilitates a shift in the global healthcare paradigm from one of illness and disease to health, wellness and well-being.

3. Sense of Accomplishment
   - Becoming a certified holistic nurse or nurse coach shows that you hold yourself accountable to a higher standard.

4. Career Advancement
   - Certification supports career advancement and opens the door to more opportunities and increased compensation.

5. Public Recognition
   - Assures the public that competency standards and eligibility requirements have been met to earn a credential. Certification further enhances credibility with consumers, employers, and other stakeholders.
